

The EFAC-USA Bulletin Editorial Calendar

February 2022 – April 2022

Theme: Implementing EFAC-USA's Goals

Issue	Copy Due	Creative Due	Editorial
#7 – Feb 5	2/1	1/30	Introduction	A review of EFAC-USA's goals, from the white paper
#8 – Feb 20	2/16	2/15
#9 – Mar 5	3/1	2/28	Evangelical theology	Regain confidence in, and promote, evangelical theology
#10 – Mar 20	3/16	3/15	Fellowship & Cooperation	Foster fellowship and cooperation among evangelicals in all Anglican jurisdictions; Feature on introducing resolutions to allow cross-jurisdiction deployment
#11 – Apr 5	4/1	3/30	Evangelism	Teach evangelism as a biblical priority
#12 – Apr 20	4/16	4/15	Gospel worship	Promote gospel worship; tie-in with and possible interview with Prayer-book Society; Feature on introducing resolutions to authorize 1662 International Edition for use in dioceses
#13 – May 5	5/1	4/30	Biblical preaching	Train and deploy biblical preachers for all Anglican jurisdictions

Sections

Editorial	An explication of the topic from the Reformed perspective, with examples from or applicable to Evangelical Anglicans.
Feature	Guest op-ed, Book review, interview, research gloss, tying back to the editorial when possible.
Testimonial	Personal or reported recollection of conversion, missionary activity, gospel encounter, etc.
Book Reviews	On books of interest to Evangelical Anglicans and Reformed Christians.
News	From EFAC-USA and EFAC Global.
Mailbag	Letters to the editor.
Appointments	New calls and assignments for EFAC-USA members.

Submission guidelines for Features, Testimonials, and Book Reviews

Articles should be 250-300 words and may be edited for length and clarity. Longer articles may be considered and broken up over two or more issues. Please direct all enquiries and submissions to advertising@efac-usa.org.